22 MISSION IS POSSIBLE

FROM THE EDITOR

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." KJV

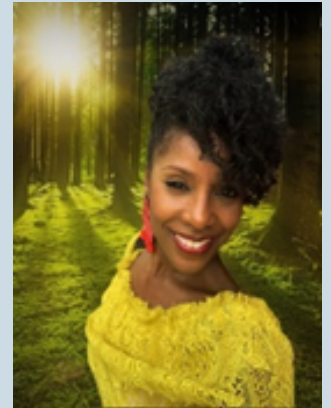

We seem to be living in a time of unrest when the unexpected, unfamiliar, and unimaginable are on display daily. But one thing we can be certain of is that God will be with us through whatever it is we may be facing.

When God said he will never leave us nor forsake us, he meant just what he said. He tells us in Isaiah 41:10 Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. In last month's magazine issue, The Cheat Code, we learned that when we grow in the knowledge and understanding of God's Word, we also grow in the confidence that our Cheat Code (the bible) provides us with everything we need to win over any circumstance.

We must not grow weary but rather trust the process, reframe our reality with the belief and faith in Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. There is purpose in every hill, valley, or crooked road that we encounter, and something or someone for us to pour into or learn from. These periods of transition are filled with moments that aid in the development of our personal and spiritual maturity. As we are on our individual journeys to get to the place where God wants us while learning to move in the will of God, we will experience some things. Sometimes these experiences move us out of our comfort zones. But when we trust in the love He has for us, unlike no other, we learn to lean into Him and embrace the journey. "...and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:20

Blessings

Dear Reader,

Welcome to the month of August! We are so pleased that you are here for another volume of Power of One Magazine. Thank you for your continued support and for sharing the digital link so that others can enjoy the message of encouragement and hope shared in these pages.

The title of this magazine is "Lo!" This word is mentioned 1319 times in the bible from Genesis to Revelations. It is stated most often in Genesis, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel and is used to make an exclamation- Look! See! Behold! Observe! We understand that this is revival season in many churches. We hope that the messages shared by the Power of One team will cause you to get excited and to behold the goodness of the Lord! Happy reading!

Thank you, Father God, for the opportunity to encourage your people. May the words shared through these pages be acceptable in your sight. We pray your blessed anointing on this edition as we go international with our Kingdom Takeover!

In Jesus' Name,
Amen!

OVERCOMING OUR MOUNTAINS

Mark 11:22-23 NKJV commands us to have faith in God! For verily I say unto you. That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be, thou removed and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; He shall have whatsoever he saith!

But how do we follow this command in the midst of all these mountains? Well, we must understand and not forget that the mountain Jesus was talking about removing was not Mt. Everest, Mt. Kilimanjaro, Mt. Vesuvius, or any other natural mountain. But the mountains that Jesus was talking about are actually spiritual obstacles that manifest themselves as mountains of problems, mountains of difficulties, setbacks, burdens, hardships, defeat, fear, uncontrolled anger, discouragement, disappointments, failure, depression, sorrow, peer pressure, low self-esteem, sickness, crisis, and the list goes on and on! Now that's a lot of mountains. But I repeat, God can and will move every mountain if you have faith and do not doubt!

These mountains are anything that stops you from worshipping or serving God; anything that stops the progress and growth of your walk with Jesus! God is a God of progress. So, if we have not been seeing progress, we must give our mountains to God and release them from our own hands, which just get in the way!

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ, in order for these mountains to be moved we need to understand, and not forget, that it is not the mountain that matters but our perspective of the mountain that matters most! I mean let's be honest, if you see God as smaller than your problem, then, of course, it will be very hard to see him being able to handle your mountain! However, if you see that God is bigger than your mountain, then the mountain you are facing is smaller than God. I have a question for you! What lens are you looking through to view your mountains today?

Are you looking through the lens where you see your mountain as huge, against a little God with little power? Or do you see your mountain as small against a huge God; the one true and only wise God, the omnipotent One who stands with all power in His hands! Now, if you are looking through the lens and see a Big God, then your mountain will start to look more like a molehill! But it is all about your perspective. Remember Caleb and Joshua in the 13th Chapter of Numbers? They were the only two in the camp that saw clearly and were ready to go into their promised land among the Philistine Giants. The rest of the camp saw themselves as little grasshoppers, therefore not able to see how it would be possible to go in and possess the land that was already promised to them! The same concept can be applied when it comes to our mountains. We must be able to see our mountain clearly in the spirit to know that the mountain is no match for our God and that it will be moved because God says it will!

End of the story, period! Understand, the mountain can't be cast into the sea in the natural, but it will be moved in the supernatural if your faith and belief are without a doubt! The moral of the story is to have faith in God, because as your faith grows, the possibilities for your mountains to be cast into the sea, increase! God wants your faith in Him and His limitless power to grow today. And He wants us to act on that faith and be the overcomers that He created us to be! If we put our faith into action, we can truly cast our mountains into the sea with the Lord's Help! No mountain is too big for our God! Give them to God today and your life will never be the same!

Lo! The promises within the Holy Word are available to ALL. The activities of this world are moving at unimaginable speeds. We must recognize the move of God in our life situations and seek his guidance. Unique signs and wonders are being experienced daily by us that believe. Let us not miss the opportunities to testify so that men may see and know that the true and living God is operating in our lives according to his will and that we exhibit a Christ-like behavior for the world to see. During these times of change, moving forward is essential. Taking wise counsel and surrounding ourselves with others of like minds will make a big difference in the way we experience our journey in this life.

Therefore, it is better that two be together than one, for they have profit of their fellowship. WYC Ecclesiastes 4:9.

"Fellowship is vital to friendships where the relationship allows iron to sharpen iron. PENNMAEL-Information for Life will share a Friendship Tea with women who love God and one another. Minister Saundra Werts of Werts Ministeries, Reverend Lencie Marchan, and Missionary Jean Moore of Promise Land COGIC, will discuss the prominence of friendship in their faith journey. Friends will recognize the move of God in your life and support you to glorify Him and edify the body of Christ.

Therefore, encourage one another and build each other up, just as, you are doing. 1 Thessalonians 5:11

We share challenging and joyous times in our lives with those we name as friends. Good belly laughs and gut-wrenching tears are reminders of our growth and development.

I have never called you 'servants' because a master doesn't confide in his servants, and servants don't always understand what the master is doing. But I call you my most intimate and cherished friends, for I reveal everything I've heard from my Father. John 15:15 TPT.

Jesus calls us friends. He cares for his friends. He sits at the right hand of the Father, interceding for us. I want to tell you there is a blessing in praying for your friends as we all demonstrate the power to overcome adversities and willingness to give God the highest praise.

After Job had prayed for his friends, the Lord restored his fortunes and doubled his previous possessions Job 42:10 CSB.

When there are issues between friends, it does not end the relationship, rather it increases their knowledge and understanding of each other. That information allows us to pray for our friends specifically and in generalities. Jesus wants us to trust him in all these moments and to rely on him. Lo, he will be with us even to the ends of the world.

CONTENT AND STILL COMMITTED!

Contentment should not breed complacency! Our contentment with the Lord and our place in life should not dissuade us from continuing to move forward. We are to be contented with our position, new life, and understanding that God has our best life in His ordained will for each of us.

1 Timothy 6:6-10 tells us; But godliness with contentment is great gain, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs.

The desire to be rich can tempt us to settle for the trappings of this world. Having an abundance of anything can be a great place to be. But, gaining abundance and not using it for the enrichment of others can make us become "misers" headed for destruction. This eternal perspective (1 Tim.6:7) helps believers avoid the allure of greed, with the result that they are content with what God has given them, even if it consists of only food and clothing.

What is condemned here is the selfish desire to be rich, not material things per se when rightly used for the glory of God. The desire to be rich can lead one to fall into temptation. Hebrews 13:5; Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you.

Money is only a tool to be used to accomplish the things that we must do, such as providing for our families and friends, making life less stressful and harmful, and showing others how to live peacefully in this world. Let's do all that God has ordained us to do and be content that He will provide what we need to accomplish it. Don't worry, be content, and be committed.

EVERY DAY IS YOUR SPIRITUAL INDEPENDENCE DAY

AUTHOR: Minister DIVA
(aka Pastor De’Rain F. Irvin)
3N1 Ministries, LLC
<https://www.facebook.com/DerainIrvin>

One of my favorite holidays is the 4th of July, America’s Independence Day, which we celebrated last month. As I was full of great anticipation of seeing the fireworks, this thought dropped in my spirit. Once a year we celebrate America’s Independence Day, but every day, in the life of a Christian, is our Spiritual Independence Day!

We celebrated America’s history, but we also have a history to celebrate. We have His-Story. Every day we should celebrate His-Story! Jesus hung, bled, and died on Calvary, which is His-Story. He did that so we could have Our-story. Because of Jesus Christ, Our-Story ends in victory! Hallelujah!!

Regardless of our current circumstances, the final chapter of our story has not been written. God has a plan for us, and every chapter of Our-Story has a new beginning. Every morning is the beginning of a new chapter. You can command your morning so that Your-Story is a story of faith, not defeat.

Our-story began with Jesus purchasing our freedom. When we are hurting, feeling down, or feeling defeated, as the enemy wants us to feel, just remember that every day is our Spiritual Independence Day!

Remember, John 8:36, “So if the Son makes you free, then you are unquestionably free.”

The enemy wants to depress us, suppress us, and oppress us into believing that we are not free. He wants to keep us in bondage mentality. That devil is a lair!! You can tell him no, no devil not today, and tomorrow ain't looking good for you either!

We are free. Free from what? I am glad you asked. We are free from EVERYTHING that keeps us in bondage!! What? YES!! We are free from the limited power of the enemy, his limited influence in our lives, and his limited authority in our lives. He only has what we give him, so don't give him ANYTHANG!! Don't give him your peace, your joy, your hope and don't give him your dreams.

Celebrate your Spiritual Independence Day EVERY DAY with prayer, praise, and worship!! Watch God move in you and your family. Watch God restore your family, break those chains that are holding you down, move those mountains out of your way, open those doors that you've been knocking on, heal your body, send living water in places that have been dry, give you financial breakthroughs, and bless your socks off!!

Life and death are in the power of the tongue, speak life! We keep ourselves in bondage by the words that we speak. We are free to be whatever we want to be because of the power, authority, and blood of Jesus. “The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows].” John 10:10 AMP.

Remind yourself that Jesus came that you would live a life of abundance to the full until it overflows. Glory to God!! Remind yourself that every day is your Spiritual Independence Day!!

Campaign for the Kingdom
<https://www.facebook.com/BishopDarrylHusband>

“YOU’RE “UNBELIEVABLE” SOMETIMES, BECAUSE THE UNBELIEVABLE ONE LIVES INSIDE OF YOU”

Let’s be clear about one thing: People are not always going to believe or understand your story. They don’t get how you keep going. They don’t get how you survive being despised. They don’t get how you can keep loving through being disliked, abused, overlooked, ignored, and sometimes even hated.

They don’t get what you mean when you tell your testimony that you stopped whoring, drugging, and drinking, because of an encounter with an unseen Savior.

If you are going to follow Jesus, and tell your story, get ready for rejection and disbelief adjustments with friends, colleagues, family members, and enemies. You just need to know that because you said it, doesn’t mean they will believe it. Here are words you are subject to hear returned to you, so be prepared:

1. It won’t last- you’re going through a phase.
2. It won’t come to pass- You’re being brainwashed.
3. You think you’re better than us, don’t you?

In John 10 Jesus begins to share with others that the path to “The Father” was through Him. The listeners didn’t understand He attempted further and they responded with mixed opinions, many even saying of Him, “He has a devil and is mad (crazy), why should we listen to Him?”

That said, here is what you should know about your journey:

- A) Rejection may come
- B) Abandonment may follow
- C) Harsh words may be passed

However, never forget the fact that Jesus embodied the story He told until His story changed history!

He lived it out... He walked out what He said...and you have to as well, with the mindset that He is with you and that’s more than the world against you. I love that old song from the civil rights movement: “I ain’t gon’ let nobody turn me round’ turn me round’, turn me round’. I ain’t gon’ let nobody turn me round’, gonna keep on walk-in’, keep on talkin’, keep on marching...”

You can’t live your life by the dictates of others. They didn’t write your story. Nor did they MAKE RIGHT YOUR STORY!

Jesus never questioned His purpose, even when He was challenged by the pain of the process. There are times when the process of what you’re going through has pain written all over it, but remember that trials and temptations are testing tools, like difficult classes in school, to see if you are worthy of graduation. Study them and believe you can pass, so you can experience what graduation has to offer. Remind yourself along the way that you have a “champion” in your DNA! “Greater is He in you...!”

BRIDGING THE GAP

AUTHOR:

Prophetess Joanne Walker

God Got It Ministries

<https://www.facebook.com/GodGotItMinistry/>

But Jesus said, "Let the children come to, me and do not stop! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who, are, like these children"—Matthew 19:14

Bridging the gap is about changing the mindset from what one was traditionally taught and being open to hearing and listening to the viewpoint of others. It is about recognizing that our differences should not separate and divide us but brings us together by understanding, that not one individual has a monopoly over others. Whether young or old, literate or illiterate, professional or non-professional, unsaved or saved the perspective of one another should be communicated and respected regardless of our differences. If we desired to be successful in every aspect or area of life, then there must be a transformation in the mindset and a willingness to bring about that change with positivity instead of negativity. We have a responsibility to the next generation of ensuring that they are successful in the secular world and the life of the Church. Therefore, unity must be built on using God's word, wisdom, knowledge, and understanding which are the foundation and pillars that solidify the bridge. The responsibility lies with the mature and newer generation's willingness to "Bridge the Gap". This will require both generations to give and receive from each other. So, what recourse can we take to fill in the breach among the mature and newer generation? Let us consider the Bible:

Throughout biblical history, children were depicted as second-class citizens. The right of children was still often overlooked, and little thought was given to them.

Je However, Jesus' perspective changes the dynamic as it relates to the treatment of children among His contemporaries. For He said, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them". With this one sentence, Jesus portrays the characteristics of the kingdom of God using children. While young people were thought to be insignificant in the eyes of adults; they were important to God and held a very special place in Jesus' heart. Jesus saw these little ones' humbleness, vulnerability, and innocence that the His contemporaries could not see.

And perhaps, the children saw in Jesus the comfort and peace, and gentleness in his voice as He spoke words that even they could understand. Maybe, they saw an adult whose personality and warmth drew them like a moth to light; instead of cold and judgmental. For Jesus saw the children, embraced them, and loved them. Jesus' Words spoke volumes then and are still ringing loud and clear today. "Let the children come to me and do not stop them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to them." The question is: Do we "see them," "embrace them," and "love them?" These are the layers that will fill in the gap. This is how to build the kingdom of God; bridging the gap between the generations of today and the future.

MILK TO MEAT

Both are processes of growth, always striving to move from one level to another in this Christian walk.

Both are a part of a process called growth: always striving to move from one level to another as we journey along this Christian walk. The lack of either could be damaging to kingdom work.

1 Corinthians 3:1-5

"And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?"

The second verse speaks of the immaturity of some of the people of God. In this passage Apostle Paul states "I have fed you with milk and not meat: for hitherto you were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able"

He speaks about the inability to know the real truth and put it into practice. Many have been in the Church for many years, yet still refuse to practice "real" regardless of how many times they've experienced the preached word or have been taught because the mind is still carnal. You must desire the sincere milk of the Word, that ye may grow thereby.

Search the scriptures: Hebrews 5:12-14

"For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one that useth milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil."

God wants us to mature in Him and in the knowledge of His Word; therefore, experiencing progressive movement, as we serve a God who is progressive and not stagnant. The will of God is that we all be on One Accord.

"1 Corinthians 1:10

"Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

The Spirit of Christ is continually wanting us to experience growth, leaving our thoughts and interpretations behind and embracing His Word for what it is. The pure and unadulterated God-breathed, God-inspired Word.

"His thoughts are not our thoughts neither His ways our ways"
Isaiah 55:8

"Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; And did all eat the same spiritual meat; And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ." 1 Corinthians 10:1-4

Strive to move from Milk to Meat, for it is essential for the growth of God's Kingdom here on earth. God bless us all in this endeavor.

FRIENDSHIP

AUTHOR: Minister Sandra Werts
Werts Ministries

Webster defines the word “friend” as a person who one knows and with whom one has a bond of mutual affection, typically exclusive of sexual or family relations. For the most part, I agree with Webster; however, I have found that a friend can be someone you grew up with, for example, a sister and if you are married, your spouse can be your friend. I am very thankful that after 44 years of marriage, I can still call my husband my friend.

Adding on to Webster’s definition, I would have to say that a friend is someone whom you can confide in, someone who is loyal and will be completely honest with you, not to demean you but to help you and assist you in areas that you may or may not be aware of.

Growing up, my grandmother told me that in life everyone would not be my friend. That I would encounter acquaintances, co-workers, and associates. I have lived in several states, and I have found that statement to be true. Don’t get me wrong, I have acquired and hold dear some very special people from these moves, and I can say that I have gained a few friends along the way.

My first and closest friend is my sister. Thankfully, even though I do not live in the same state as her, our bond has grown stronger. We were taught to love and respect one another and always be there for each other.

Besides my sister, I have dear friends that are not family by birth but family because of our bond in Christ. While scrolling on Facebook, I came across this statement:

“Girl, when you find a sister in someone who is not blood, Keep Her.”

This statement resonated with me because I have found several friends who have become my sisters, not by birth, but by our bond in Christ. Many songs have been recorded that express how I feel concerning, as I call them, my “sister friends”. Here are a few of the lyrics:

“Friends are Friends forever when the Lord is Lord of them”.

“That’s what friends are for”.

“Count on Me”

“Make new friends but keep the old, one is silver and the other gold.”

Silver and Gold are precious metals, so friends should be considered precious.

My friendships are very dear to me. However, there is a friend, as the bible says in Proverbs 18:24, “There is a friend who sticks closer than a brother”, and that friend is Jesus. An old gospel hymn says:

“What a friend we have in Jesus. All our sins and griefs to bear! What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!”

In John 15:13, Jesus said there is no greater love than this that a man lay down his life for his friends. He also said in John 15:15 that we are no longer servants but friends.... Accept His invitation as Savior and friend.

PROPHETIC REVELATIONS CONCERNING ENDTIME REVIVAL

With the world around us reeling in controversy and chaos, many of the Christian faith are calling for a move of God like never before. The need for a true move of God's spirit has never been more desired or needed than at this very moment. What is revival and what will it look like when it appears? Let's take a prophetic journey to explain what true revival will look like when it appears and the ingredients necessary to provoke its arrival into this declining spiritual society.

Webster's dictionary says, to revive something means to restore to consciousness or life; to bring something from an inactive or unused state, or to bring it back. True revival means to bring back that which has been inactive or unused spiritually and re-establish its presence as it was in the past. We understand fully what is needed, but as it states biblically in the Book of Ephesians 6:12, we are experiencing resistance from principalities, powers, and spiritual wickedness in high places along with old mindsets and ideas rooted in past understandings. What we in this country and around the world are wrestling with is an increased demonic presence that has raised the potency of its activity to the point that reviving what was, is not sufficient to overcome the evil desires being released upon the earth at this time. Yes, we need revival, but it will require something greater than what we have been used to seeing. What we need is something new! From a prophetic standpoint, it will require something that has never been seen before to deal with the evil which has gone to another level. What I am talking about can be more readily seen in the scriptures where King David was bringing back the Ark of the Covenant to Israel that had been stolen. The Ark represented the presence of God which had been gone for several years (I Chron. 13:7-14). As David sought to bring back the Ark, one of the priests touched it and fell dead. Without going into elaborate detail, David knew there was a problem with how he was attempting to bring back what had been lost.

After much deliberation and prayer, a new strategy was birthed. It was understood that the old mindset and strategy to bring the presence of God back to the church of the day was not the will of the father. Rather the next move of God would be initiated from inside the home! What is being released prophetically is that we as believers must be willing to receive the presence of the Lord into our homes as Obed-edom did. We must allow revival and blessings to take place in our homes first. Then, we must launch revival into the streets until it gains the attention of the leaders of this world and is sought by nations. When God is revived in us and is seen in us, then our enemies will be scattered! Let's go for it!

Love You Back To Life

Love You Back To Life, is a nonprofit organization is dedicated to empowering and encouraging women who are experiencing homelessness by providing personal essentials, clothing, sleeping bags, tents, and food. We connect with our sisters without judgment, empowering them to find their voices.

The decision to include specific items such as sleeping bags, battery-operated fans, and grocery store gift cards, stems from the personal experience of LYB2L's founder, Andrea Briscoe, and her time being homeless. The personal essentials and clothing provided are weather-specific and are often difficult to obtain from shelters.

Because we understand there's a greater need, we don't just distribute food and clothing. Our organization also builds bridges by providing tools and skills to those who are homeless.

At Love You Back To Life, we listen and love without judgment. One woman who received a bag of personal essentials during a recent distribution came up to the volunteer with tears in her eyes and thanked them for providing her with a toothbrush, as she hadn't had access to a toothbrush to brush her teeth in quite some time.

Our motto –

We're real-life examples that there is life on the other side of homelessness.

"Today Is The Best Day Of My Life – You have everything you need to survive"

TAGGED

TAGGED is a 501c3 non-profit organization that works to awaken the potential and harness the strengths of the talented, ambitious, and gifted youth in foster care. We focus on shining a light on this underrepresented group of youth so they can see the endless possibilities in front of them. We help them to maximize their lives by empowering them to pursue what they are passionate about. Our goal is to build future leaders by giving them the tools and enrichment opportunities necessary to step into adulthood and become the best version of themselves.

TAGGED PROGRAMS

STUFF-A-STOCKING: This is our signature program!! We collect stuffed Christmas Stockings from our community and donate them to local foster care organizations.

BUILD-A-DREAM: We award $1000 scholarships to youth so they can pursue their TAG (Talent, Ambition, or Gift).

BE-TAGGED: We conduct a series of life skills, and enrichment workshops to prepare youth for a successful transition to adulthood.

STUFF-A-TRUNK: We provide college-bound youth with dorm supplies such as bedding, storage, personal hygiene supplies, and books.

TAGGED SERVICES:

RE-TAGGED ~ Boutique/Thrift Store: All proceeds fund TAGGED programs and activities.

Community Outreach: We partner with our community to fill currently unfunded gaps in the foster care system.

Life Way Services

Life Way Services is where the invisible pain and suffering of past negative experiences that cause mental and emotional strain is exposed and overpowered along the way to wholeness. At Life Way Services, we understand the complexities of the brain and the power it possesses over one's body, decision-making, and behavior. Our compassionate staff customizes a personal route for our clients by combining proven strategies with spiritual understanding to reach the desired destination of mental freedom.

Human beings are designed to thrive and not survive. Too many people exist from day-to-day under the illusion that "they will be alright," as if the mental torment of negative events will magically disappear. The reality is that one's facial expression, body language, and demeanor tell the true story. In the same manner that you can't see a physical ailment, sickness, or disease in your body but can determine that something is wrong on the inside, is also true in identifying one's mental health; knowing something is not right on the inside and feeling a need for assistance in healing the pain. Allow Life Way Services to be that mental and emotional healing agent to gently guide you along a path of peace, restoration, and wholeness.
