POWER OF ONE

Dear Readers,

Welcome to this month's issue entitled, "Making Moves". Our lives are filled with activities associated with our daily routines of family, work, career goals, church, social engagements, and so on. We are constantly making moves. Life is a beautiful gift but let's be honest, it is also filled with many challenges, and how we decide to move in our situations can lead us to solutions or even greater challenges.

So, the question becomes, who is leading you in the moves you are making and where are those moves taking you? Are you left drained and unfulfilled as though you are waking up repeating the same day over and over? Or are you waking up rejoicing, dressing in your spiritual armor, and walking out the door with your superpower ready to move in your God-ordained purpose?

You were not created to merely exist. You were created to live, to experience life abundantly. John 10:10 reads, "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly." "More abundantly", to have a superabundance of a thing. Therefore, to live an "Abundant life" means to experience an abounding fullness in all areas of life: mind, body, spirit, and soul. Sadly, many of us are experiencing life well below the level of abundance.

The articles found in this issue will hopefully encourage and empower you to begin to Make Moves toward a more intimate relationship with Christ. Because He is the author and finisher of our lives, He knows ALL about YOU...and remember it is Christ, himself, who came that you would experience life more abundantly. So, follow His lead. He will show you, instruct you and walk you out of your stuck, unfulfilled place into your purpose and abundant life in Him. There is no other way to move into your abundant life except to be led by Him.

Blessings...

WELCOME, THIS WAY, PLEASE!!!

And He said to them, "Follow Me [as My disciples, accepting Me as your Master and Teacher and walking the same path of life that I walk], and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew

How often have you entered an establishment where the host or hostess' greeting was warm and welcoming? They would lead you to an assigned seat based on your ticket or affiliation. This way, please is an expression that says, go or come this way. Follow me. Hear what Jesus said.

The initial step we must take is accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior. Then moving forward, we must be willing to follow the leading and guidance of the Holy Spirit. His guidance will lead us toward operating in our purpose and God-given gifts and talents to not only benefit ourselves but those we encounter, for His glory. Along the way, you may experience moments when you are moving in the will of God and the momentum you were gaining in your situation suddenly seems stalled or even as if things have made a turn in the opposite direction. This can bring about feelings of despair. Knowing God is almighty, you may ask, "why is it happening"? This is when reflection and resting in His promises is key to propelling us to higher levels of faith—resting in the finished work of God knowing victory has already been given to those who believe.

Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead. Phil 3:13 NKJV..

Moving forward can be difficult. Missionary Tiffany Thompson will bless you as she delivers God's holy life-changing word on how we can still experience "Unspeakable Joy" during those times. The will of God is always present and relevant in this time and place. God gives us direction and the ability to fulfill his plan. Ramoth City of Refuge, St. Louis, MO. Pastor Herbert Thompson Jr. elucidates two requirements for forwarding movement in the world as it is today.

Follow Chairman Herbert Thompson Sr., Pastor, and Missionary Tiffany Thompson(daughter) at the Ramoth City of Refuge, 11982 Roseview Lane, St. Louis, MO 63138 <https://www.facebook.com/RamothCOGIC> and on PennMael-Information For Life www.powerofoneministrytv.com

Radical Faith and Divine Purpose are being explained clearly and delivered under the anointing of the Holy Spirit. We can be assured moment by moment that we are not alone. The feeling of being alone without hope has devastated many lives. That feeling can paralyze thoughts and actions. Joy, faith, and purpose must resonate in the messages that are shared as we move forward. We know that His word orders our steps and that He watches over his word to perform it. We have the victory. Move Forward.

OH, WHAT A DAY!

Have you ever uttered those words, either in elation or exasperation? The former is greatly desired over the latter. Having a great day can cause a chain reaction of love, support, contentment, and well-being. One of my best days was on a trip to Jerusalem and I will always remember it.

What are the things that make up a great day? How about a day filled with love?

For, God is love, and so your day should be full of Godliness. How about joy?

Having a deep-rooted and Godly inspired contentment with what He has provided. That, my friend, is a great day!

How about peace? In the midst of a troubled and corrupt world, ruled by the powers of anarchy, greed, and selfishness, peace is a priceless commodity. The peace that “passeth” all understanding is well worth pursuing.

Once you find it, “what a great day”!

However, to obtain these things we must visit areas of longsuffering while exhibiting gentleness and goodness. It will be difficult but have faith; you will achieve it. Not through your own talents or efforts alone, but by humbling yourself before almighty God in a spirit of meekness, walking in His will, which is power indeed.

There is power in His Word that will overcome all obstacles. So, stay the course, being temperate in all things. We can accomplish this by exhibiting or modeling moderation, in action, in thought, and by displaying restraint, even when you may want to explode.

But don't take my word for it; go to the Word of God.....

Galatians 5:22-23 “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.”

HAVE A GREAT DAY!!!

BECOME THE CEO OF YOUR LIFE

Are you looking to make a change in your life? Are you ready to take your career to the next level? If so, then this is the journal for you! The Affirmations of a CEO on the Move Journal contains writing prompts and affirmations from 29 successful female CEOs. Topics include overcoming fear, self-love, confidence, gratitude, financial management, positive body image, and more!

Affirmations are a great way to improve your mindset and achieve your goals. By repeating positive affirmations regularly, you can start to believe in yourself and your abilities. This will help you to stay focused and motivated, even when things get tough. Affirmations can help you to overcome fear, self-doubt, and other negative thoughts. So don't wait any longer. Pick up a copy of the Affirmations of a CEO on the Move Journal and start achieving your dreams today!

"When you read silently, I want the words to resound loudly in your ears. However, I also encourage you to read the affirmations aloud so that your voice whispers to your heart. You are made for whatever moment you are in. Lean into it and know that I and all who are involved in the project are cheering you on."

MAKING MOVES FOR THE KINGDOM OF GOD!

AUTHOR: Pastor Devolus Parker
Agape Family Life Church

When making moves we must consider David and his winning preparation found in 1 Sam:17.

First and foremost, David was PASSIONATE FOR GOD'S GLORY. The Lord described David as "a man after my own heart; he will do everything I wanted him to do" (Acts 13:22). David was driven by a desire to see that God's Name be exalted and God be glorified. Not everyone shares the same passion. In fact, his oldest brother Eliab came to him, burning with anger, and asked: "Why have you come down here? ... I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle" (1 Sam 17:28). David's words exposed their cowardice hearts and their fears. Are we more concerned about our name or the Name of the Lord? Are we more concerned about defending our reputation, or the glory of God? Our passion for God's glory is paramount for making moves!

Secondly, David was FAMILIAR WITH GOD'S FAITHFULNESS. This is evident when he has to convince Saul to let him fight Goliath. David said, If God delivered me in the past, He will deliver me now. David was tending his father's sheep as a young boy. Nothing glamorous or great, but he experienced God's presence, protection, and power. David learns lessons about God's power and faithfulness, in the private arena (at home in the backyard) before God thrusts him into the public arena (and appoints him leader over Israel). Familiarity with God's faithfulness provides the atmosphere for making moves!

In the red corner wearing nothing but sandals and a tunic is the anointed runt of a kid. The challenger, weighing in at too small. His record is a shattering 0-0 against humans. He has no armor. He has no sword. He has no shield. He has no army training and no army supporting him. Jesse's youngest son, Daaaaaaviddddd!

And in the other corner, wearing a hundred and twenty-five pounds of steel-plated armor. The enemy warrior. Undefeated! He's head and shoulders above all. Undefeated! Ripped head to toe with solid muscle. Undefeated! He's highly trained in all kinds of combat. Undefeated! He carries a spear and a sword. He wears a huge helmet. He has an unlimited supply of ammunition. He has a separate armor bearer to carry his gear. He has a full army behind him. Undefeated! Gooliiiiiiath!

Lastly, David DEPENDED UPON GOD'S POWER. It was obvious David had no warring experience. The armor and helmet belonging to Saul did not fit him. He was untrained and inexperienced. However, He had God on his side and that was enough! If God is for us, who can be against us? (Rom 8:31) God can use the most insignificant thing to accomplish His will. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things-and the things that are not - to nullify the things that are. God's power is needed for making moves!

THERE IS POWER IN A NAME!

We are all known by many names. We have different relationships and the name we’re called is based on those relationships. I am called Mommy, Mom, Grandma, God mommy, Aunt Bun, Sis, Cousin, Pastor Irvin, Minister DIVA, Assistant Principal, Ace Boon Coon, colleague, and Friend.

There are different characteristics and expectations associated with each name. The name that you call me also determines the level of my responsibility to meet your expectations. The person that calls me Mommy or Grandma has more rights, privileges, and a higher level of expectation that they will receive what they are asking for. My children would say that the name Grandma has the greatest power or the greatest possibility to get what you want. There is power in the name, Mommy, but there is more power in the name, Grandma!!

When I hear Mommy or Grandma, there is an immediate tugging at my heart and a greater desire to respond favorably. I believe that’s the same thing that happens when we as children of God, call on our Heavenly Father!! He is a good Father!

As we are dealing with unprecedented challenges, it is time for the people of God to take their faith to the next level. These are times for radical faith in God, faith in the Word of God, and we must believe that God is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him. (Hebrews 11:6) We must believe that there is still power in “The Name”!

We call on God through praise, worship, and prayer. It is based on our circumstances, our needs, or when we are interceding on behalf of others. He knows our needs and sometimes He will show up even before we call Him.

- “And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou anything unto him: And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns:..... And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-Jireh.....” Genesis 22:11-14
- and said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.” (Jehovah-Rapha) Exodus 15:26
- “And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-Shalom.....Judges 6:23-24

God has many Names and one is specific for your situation. Launch out in the deep and take your faith in God to the next level! Depend only on Him! Trust in Him! Call Him, He will answer! There is still power in “The Name”!

DISCIPLINE: THE KEY TO DESTINY ACHIEVEMENT

Let's cut to the chase.

Question number one:

What if you Decide to Courageously Chase your Destiny? Your "dreams" may be great, but make sure they do not collide with your destiny. Your destiny has to do with God's plan for your life, not necessarily YOUR plan.

Let me offer some advice:

- A. Don't fear taking chances.
- B. Don't fear losing people who call themselves friends but are rather distractions.
- C. Real champions rise when others are sleeping. They see shortcuts as a recipe for failure or mediocrity.

You have two choices in life: accept conditions as they exist or accept the responsibility for changing them.

Question number two:

What if you decide to live a life of honor? Honor means to esteem highly.

Live your life in respect of all people no matter their color, beliefs, age, or gender. Follow this path. Honor God first! Honor your parents always, even when you move past the "obey" stage. Honor those in authority. Honor those you serve on your job, in the community, and in your church. Then finally, Honor those who serve you.

Two Non-Negotiable's:

1. Don't let anyone put a price on your integrity.
2. Put a "Not For Sale" sign on you.

You are already "bought"! Now make choices that match that mindset.

A certain courthouse in Ohio stands in a unique location. Raindrops that fall on the north side of the building go into Lake Ontario and the Gulf of St. Lawrence, while those falling on the south side go into the Mississippi River and the Gulf of Mexico. At precisely the point of the peak of the roof, just a gentle puff of wind can determine the destiny of many raindrops. It will make a difference of more than 2,000 miles to their final destination. The spiritual application is powerful and clear. By the smallest deed or choice of words, we could change the course of others' lives here and could also affect their eternal destiny. Ask yourself one defining overall question as a guide for your life: "DOES THIS GLORIFY GOD?"

Here's the final of three questions:

What if you DECIDE, that one day, you must stand before God and give an account for what you did while here?

You are here to lead! Sometimes out front and sometimes by serving. Know how to follow with humility and passion but lead always. Live every day as though tomorrow you had to answer to God.

The Danish philosopher Søren Kierkegaard told a story of thieves who broke into a jewelry store and didn't steal anything; they simply rearranged the price tags. The next morning, the expensive jewelry was sold as junk, and the junk jewelry was sold as expensive. We live in a world where someone has rearranged the price tags. Don't let anyone or anything rearrange the one on you. You are the priceless image of God. Discipline your life to always remain so.

YOU CAN SURVIVE THE STORM

AUTHOR:

Prophetess Joanne Walker

God Got It Ministries

<https://www.facebook.com/GodGotItMinistry/>

Storms come in many shapes and many sizes. Some are like a snap, crackle, and pop, meaning they don't last long and cause little or no damage. Others may be monstrous, moving fast and with fury, while some can be slow, seeming as if they will never end. Life's storms are like the storms of nature, such are storms of relationships, finances, health, and even the death of a loved one(s). This was the kind of storm that swept into my life on July 23, 2017, as I stood by my mother's bedside and watched her peacefully breathe her last breath. That storm left me in a place of deep sorrow and a broken heart. I knew my life would never be the same again. However, as devastating as life's storms can be, they are necessary.

According to the apostle James, we are told: "count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience." In other words, James tells us to embrace our storms, our troubles, our pain, and our sorrow. And be aware that the assessment of our faith and trust will birth forth the character of perseverance and fortitude. Although this may seem strange to our way of thinking, it is perfect in the sight of the Assessor, Jesus Christ. For James continued to tell us, "But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete,..." My friends Jesus is not trying to tear us down or harm you and me. He is designing and working in us the same nature of perfection of Himself and God the Father. The Holy Spirit through Jesus Christ is working to bring into completion that which God has started in us. The apostle Paul said, "being confident of this very thing, that He who begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Christ" (Philippians 1:6).

Therefore, friends instead of trying to run away from our suffering and pain and running toward thoughts of suicide or feel-good substances for a temporary escape, let us learn to embrace our testing by "counting it all joy." (vs.2a) That on the Day of the Lord, He will find us lacking nothing (vs. 4b). For this is what Jesus will be looking to see in His Church, members of His body that look like Him. So, my friends, REJOICE! Your trials come to help you to become the Church without a spot or wrinkle. The apostle Paul said, "that He (Jesus) might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or such thing, that it should be holy without blemish (Ephesian 5:27).

Therefore, friends, you can have JOY now! For Paul said, "And we know that all things work together for the good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose (Romans 8:28). YOU WILL SURVIVE THE STORM!

LEVELING UP SPIRITUALLY..... EXPERIENCING GROWTH IN CHRIST!

Wow, this topic is all at once Challenging and thought-provoking. It speaks to the necessity of going higher and being better. The best version of our Spiritual selves, the self we see in our mind's eye and ascribe to daily, though sometimes failing along the way. As a starting point, below we have compiled some steps to assist with flowing in the Spirit while living our best lives in Christ Jesus.

Step 1: Self-Assessment

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. 2 Corinthians 13:5 KJV

Where am I in Christ?

Should Jesus crack the sky, at this moment, and return for His people, am I Rapture ready? Am I holding anything in my heart against anyone? Have I truly forgiven those that have wronged me or spitefully used me?

How would I honestly describe my Spiritual Walk?

Am I lukewarm, hot, or cold? Where is my Spirit barometer? (Means of measuring atmospheric pressure)

How is my relationship going with Jesus?

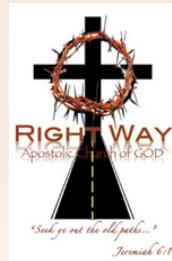

Am I known of Him, or will He say to me in that last day...."Depart from me, I never knew you" Matthew 7:23 Can I immediately come into His presence with ease or are there barriers hindering our conversation?

Step 2: Own Our Positive and Negative Behaviors

- Repent
- Confess your faults one to another, but particularly to God. He knows them anyway.
- Be transparent

As a famous quote from Shakespeare goes, "This above all: to thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Whether we tell anyone or not, we know innately if we're walking upright or crooked. If no one else, be honest with yourself. Our integrity is all tied up in that. And guess what? We have positive points too! Build on that. Add thou to it. Be thankful that we serve a loving and compassionate God who gives us brand new mercies daily and new opportunities to get it right.

Step 3: Pray Yourself EMPTY, Study Yourself FULL

- Get in the Father's presence. Seek his Face, meaning His direction and will in this "Season"
- Immerse yourself in the Word of God. Praying and reading are synonymous with growth. It's the 1-2 Spiritual punch that sets all things in order, makes sense of life, and brings us closer to the whole reason why we are here in the first place, which is to work the works of Him who called and sent us. What better way can we have the mind of Christ and carry out His will in the earth realm than to speak to Him and have Him speak with us in return?
 - Feed your spirit man daily. Your adversary knows, if you don't, what works. It's not enough to just read. You must also meditate and walk in the Word. Take "good notes" on Sundays and in Bible classes. Then re-read and turn over the Word until you get that 3-D revelation. The Word of God is awesome weaponry for leveling up.
 - Pray in the Spirit

Step 4: Walk In Purpose And Faith

- Know your mission and believe the God you serve is able to do exceedingly and abundantly above all you can think or ask.
- Know your gifts because everyone has one (some have multiple).
- Be unashamed of what God has placed in you according to His Holy Word! Live this life out loud and on purpose for the Lord our God is truly returning soon!!
- Remember, work while it's daytime, Get Right or Get Left!!!

LEVELING UP IN CHRIST

AUTHOR: Minister Sandra Werts
Werts Ministries

Leveling Up or Level Up, what does that mean? To be truthful, I never thought about it; I don't recall ever using the phrase. I guess since the pandemic, I have heard the term used quite a bit, especially among young people playing games. So, I decided to see what it meant.

The Macmillan Dictionary, Level Up means to increase or improve something. In the gaming world, this means progressing to the next level. But what does that mean in real life? How do we Level Up in our lives?

First, we start by taking an inventory of where we are currently and where we want to be. This will take determination, planning, setting goals, researching, and then executing the plans. When we talk about Leveling Up in life, we are talking about every area of our lives: mental, emotional, social, economic, educational, nutritional, physical, and spiritual.

The Word of God tells us in Habakkuk 2:2 to write the vision down and make it plain. Why? So that he may run who reads it, which means that he can clearly understand it. It sounds like God is saying to develop a vision board. This can be done in every area of life that was mentioned.

As Christians, God tells us in His Word in 2 Peter 3:18 to "Grow in Grace and the Knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ". That sounds like Leveling Up to me. So, Leveling Up can mean growth and development; it means becoming an improved version of yourself. It also means being transformed by the renewing of your mind so you can prove what is the Good, Acceptable, Perfect Will of God.

In reading the scriptures, I believe God desires for His children to Level Up whether they choose to or not.

God reminded Cain that if he would Level Up and present a proper offering, he would be blessed just as Abel was, but he chose not to.

Abram was willing to Level Up and obey God, resulting in his name being great, a great nation coming from his loins, and all people of the earth being blessed including us.

As Christians, sometimes we must make difficult choices if we want to Level Up spiritually.

We must love God and ourselves enough to grow and develop into whom God has already ordained us to be in Christ Jesus.

Here are a few ways we can Level Up.

1. Read the Word of God every day.
2. Build Your Faith by reading, hearing, and meditating on God's Word.
3. Declare the Word of God over your life and others.
4. Cast down or control thoughts that don't agree with God's Word.
5. Worship and Praise will produce Joy and the Joy of the Lord is your strength.
6. Edify or build up your spirit, by praying in the Spirit (praying in tongues).
7. Get rid of those things that are heavy, weighing you down.

THE JOY THAT TRUE FAITH BRINGS

Webster's Dictionary defines "joy" as being an emotion that is evoked by well-being, success, or good fortune or by the prospect of being able to possess what one desires. From a Christian perspective, the true foundation of our belief system is rooted in what the Bible refers to as faith. Faith for the New Testament believer is the foundation attached to all things that we hope for even where there is no evidence (Heb. 11:1). Faith defined, is a belief in both God and His Word. When I believe God and his word, then all things are derived from what He has said in His Word. St. John's chapter one verse three says: everything that has been created, has been created by him and stems from our belief in Him and His word! So, with this understanding, we can now begin to develop a true understanding of where the word joy originates and gets its true meaning.

The joy I am bearing reference to has a purpose. It is attached to my emotional well-being, my success, and my good fortune and brings me into contact with my heart's desires. Joy is a feeling that affects my mental well-being because it's positive and not negative. Its positive effect helps to bring us into contact with the principles of success, good fortune, and the things that our heart truly desires, which the Lord has established in connection with His Word. Here is how it works. Faith is connected to the truth of God and his Word. The promises to the believer in God are released by faith. As we become familiar with the promises that are connected to God and His Word, joy comes as a result. The Word declares that after receiving Him, we receive life more abundantly and eternal, prosperity, health, strength, and the ability to ask in faith for our heart's desires and have it given to us! Now I ask you, would you not feel joy when you think about what he has done for you? How can you not feel joy, overwhelmingly, when everything in our lives is working together for our good (Rom. 8:28)?

As you read through this article, if you have never accepted Jesus as your personal Savior and desire to feel the true joy that comes with having a personal relationship with him, then I encourage you to do so without delay. If you will confess with your mouth and believe in your heart that Jesus is the Son of God and ask him to forgive you of your sins and declare that you now accept him as your Lord and Savior, then the bible declares that you are now "SAVED" and ready to experience the unspeakable joy that true faith brings by receiving and believing in Him and his Word! Believe it and receive it!
